CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I.

The highest bidder to be the purchaser, and no person shall retract a bidding. Should any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute shall be offered again and re-sold, or not, at the discretion of the Auctioneers, who shall be the sole arbitrators as to the amount of bidding, and every other matter in dispute. The Auctioneers reserve the right of refusing any bidding, and of consolidating, dividing, or withdrawing any lots from the sale.

II.

The Auctioneers shall determine the amount of advance at each bidding.

III.

The purchaser to give in his or her name and address, and each and every purchaser to pay a deposit of five shillings in the pound, or the whole of the purchase money (if required) on the fall of the hammer, and any deposit so paid shall be taken as in part payment of the whole of the lots purchased, and not of any particular lot. Transfers from one person to another will not be recognized by the Auctioneers.

IV.

All lots to be at the sole risk and expense of the purchaser from the fall of the hammer, and shall be taken away within one day of the day of sale, with all faults, defects, and errors of description at the buyer's expense, the Auctioneers not being responsible for the description, genuineness or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in any lot, and making no warranty whatever; no allowance of any kind to be made, nor shall any purchaser be entitled to remove any lot until the whole of the lots purchased by him or her have been paid for in cash.

V.

The purchaser will be held responsible for any damage done to any other person's lots or to the premises during the removal of his or her lot or lots.

VI.

No person will be allowed to take any lot or lots purchased by him or her, but upon presenting his or her paid account to the Sale Porter the goods shall be handed to him or her for removal from the premises after each day's Sale up to six o'clock in the evening, or before ten o'clock each morning of the Sale.

VII.

Should the purchaser fail or neglect to comply with these Conditions, the deposit money shall be forfeited, and the Auctioneers shall be at liberty either to recover in full the amount of the lot or lots bought by such purchaser, without reference to any delivery of the lot or lots, other than the delivery by the fall of the hammer, or to re-sell any lot or lots bought by such purchaser, either by private or public sale, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at the present sale.

WALTER COLLINS & SON,

AUCTIONEERS.

47, The Arcade, Leamington Spa.

NOTICE.

The Auctioneers in drawing particular attention to this Genuine and Important Sale, caused through the decease of the late F. TOWNSEND, Esq., guarantee every lot herein as the property of the Executors of that gentleman, nothing having been included.

The Appointments throughout are of a superior character and contemporaneous with the Mansion, special attention being solicited to the numerous Antique Items, Oil Paintings, Books, Engravings, &c.

Arrangements have been made, for the convenience of Buyers, for Brakes to run from Stratford-on-Avon Station to Honington each morning, returning after the Sale, and Refreshments will be obtainable in the Grounds.

The Auctioneers request the co-operation of the Public in beginning the Sale each day at 12 noon, the advertised time, in order to give opportunity to those desiring it, to remove their Lots after the conclusion of each day's Sale.
